

CANCER

133

1990 Aug 10

Is cancer tied up with a block or failure of a 'filter' ^{which} ~~the~~ detector changed self-substance?

MARINE SALT HARVESTERS

1990 Aug 9

It should be possible to set up vast floating salt harvesters to travel over the seas and collect salt by evaporation of sea water. Could be unmanned, contain many clear-roofed cells, with pumps, collection pistons powered by sunlight or wave action.

WEIGHT LOSS

1990 Aug 1

It should be possible to produce an effective and painless weight loss system by a treatment which reduces the effectiveness of food absorption in the intestines - perhaps by an inert coating, or other means of reducing the effective absorption area.
